

SF Live Arts presents

JULY AT ST.CYPRIONS

The Neighborhood Concert Hall

2097 Turk St (near Masonic)

www.SFLiveArts.org

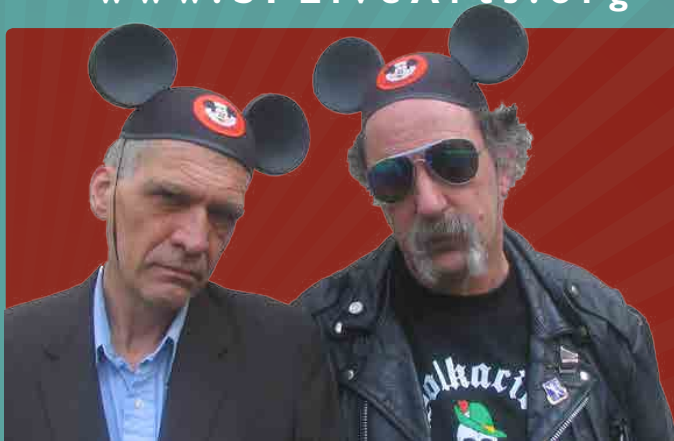

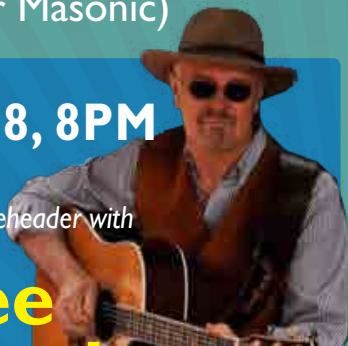

Saturday, July 8, 8PM

A folk singer/songwriter doubleheader with

James Lee Stanley and Wishing & Bone

JAMES LEE STANLEY celebrates the release of his brand new CD, "HAD ENOUGH YET?" songs of resistance, protest and hope. He has released 25 solo CDs, as well as CD collaborations with a range of artists. His fans also recognize him from the TV Show, Star Trek Deep Space Nine, where he played various aliens including the singing Klingon!

WISHING AND BONE is Tom Wishing and Noam "Bone" Cohen. They have been playing together since the late 70s in a variety of bands and projects. The music they make is a combination of blues, folk, Americana, country, and original songs.

Saturday, July 22, 8PM

An Evening of Song with Merle Kessler and Joshua Brody

Hosted by the ever-congenial MERLE "IAN SHOALES" KESSLER & intrepid musical director JOSHUA RAOUL BRODY, we present An Evening of Song. Twenty-five singers each choose a song to perform on the given theme: "The Recent Unpleasantness" accompanied by the Experimental Love Orchestra.

Visit www.sflivearts.org for more information

Coming up: We are lining up an impressive slate of performers for our fall lineup. Check our website frequently! Advance tix are available at: www.brownpapertickets.com or at (800) 838-3006 FREE PARKING at Blood Centers of the Pacific; only two blocks away, N.E. corner of Masonic & Turk. Doors open 25 minutes before the concert. Information: www.sflivearts.org (415) 454-5238. Like us on Facebook (at SF Live Arts).

